ATTITUDE OF GRATITUDE!

STORY TIME!

Aakash and Ansh were cousins. One day Aakash visited Ansh's place. Ansh took him for a stroll in the forest. They both were so engrossed in talking to each other that they didn't realise where they were heading. They had reached some new place. While walking Aakash tripped and fell in a dry well.

Help!
Help!

Ansh was shocked and tensed. Ansh yelled for help but failed. Suddenly he saw a rope, he took it and threw it in the well and asked Aakash to hold it. Ansh closed his eyes and remembered Param Gurudev's teachings.

In times of trouble we always think of Param Gurudev and also one's inner strength will lead to success.

Then he started pulling Aakash and in no time Aakash was out of the well. Ansh's confidences and faith led him to success. Ansh thanked Param Gurudev for becoming his Guiding Light.

Dev, Guru and Dharma is like the rope of hope in times of trouble.
