STORY TIME

SPEAKING TRUTH

One day class teacher announced that if any child succeeds in solving all the given sums without any help then as a reward he/she will be appointed as the Monitor of the class.

There's something more to this!

Riyaan had not solved the sums on his own but instead he had asked his brother to solve them.

Next day teacher checked everybody's homework. To her surprise Riyaan had completed all his work and all his sums were correct. So Riyaan was appointed as the Monitor.

This is the reason that instead of being happy for being appointed as a monitor.

Riyaan was not happy! Something troubled him! He was tensed.

Have you ever lied for your benefit? Do you feel was that the right act?

Surely not!

To feel happy, let us begin by confessing our mistakes to Parmatma.

Write down your confession in a paper and seek forgiveness for telling lies.

Whenever we do wrong, we will never be happy. One binds negative karmas. so think and choose wisely. For temporary happiness is it wise to bind negative Karma?

Riyaan was tensed as to if he would now tell the truth either teacher will scold him or else he would have to give up his leadership. He was in a state of confusion!

Mean while teacher said: Riyaan, you are the monitor come and help me to collect all the students books in the teachers room.

Riyaan was lost in his thoughts. He did not hear what the teacher just said...

Teacher: Riyaan, are you coming?

Riyaan was now nervous but suddenly he remembered what didi had once thought him...

Didi : Always remember...
Only the one who is brave can speak truth!

Parmatma's child never lies!

SORRY

SORRY

Riyaan realised his mistake. He went to his teacher and apologised for it. He said all the truth. Now he was ready to accept all the punishment that his teacher would give and also was ready to give up for his leadership.

But you know what did the teacher do? Instead of scolding or punishing Riyaan she appreciated him for accepting his mistakes and telling the truth. She appreciated him in front of everyone!

Truth
Lies

MONITOR

Remember!

You will be successful and happy if you don't compromise on your values and virtue.
